

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

PEJ News - Joan Russow, Ph.D. - Global Compliance Research Project - Throughout his campaign, Barack Obama declared that he would "chart a new course for America", and in his victory speech he said: "This victory alone is not the change we seek. It is only the chance for us to make this change. And this cannot happen if we go back to the way things were." And to all those watching tonight from beyond our shores. our destiny is shared. But has he moved the United States of America away from its years of militarism? Now that he has won the Nobel Peace prize for his talk, it is time for him to walk the talk www.PEJ.org 1. To reduce the US military budget by reallocating military expenses and transferring the savings into global social justice as undertaken through numerous UN Conference Action Plans and UN General Assembly Resolutions.

2. To close and convert to peaceful purposes all the over 750 US foreign military bases in sovereign states around the world.

3. To withdraw immediately from any military involvement and occupation of sovereign states including Iraq and Afghanistan

4. To end the circulation and berthing of nuclear powered or nuclear arms-capable vessels throughout the world. (NO)

5. To no longer engage in "War Games" or "Military Exercises" such as Exercise Trident Fury, and the Northwest training Range Complex

6. To no longer justify intervention under the guise of of "human security", "humanitarian intervention" "responsibility to protect" or "Will to intervene" and adopt the policy of "Will to resist intervention"

7. To abide by the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty and immediately implement Article VI of the Treaty, (Article VI: commits all parties to pursue negotiaof "human security", "humanitarian intervention" "responsibility to protect" or "Will to intervene" and adopt the policy of "Will to resist intervention" tions in good faith on measures to end the nuclear arms race and to achieve disarmament.)

8 To end the production of all weapons of mass destruction such as nuclear, chemical, and biological, as agreed to in UNCHE in 1972, and in specific conventions.

9. To be equally critical of all states, including Israel, which possess nuclear weapons, and to recognize the destabilizing impact of the Middle East as a result of the possession of nuclear weapons.

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

10. To reaffirm the obligations under the 1967 Outer Space Treaty to ensure that exploration and use of outer space, including the moon and other celestial bodies, shall be carried out for the benefit and in the interests of all countries, irrespective of their degree of economic or scientific development, and shall be the province of all mankind [humanity].

11. To discontinue the research, development and installation of Ballistic Missile Defence technology.

12 To make a full commitment to disarmament and to oppose the continued profit-making from the sale of arms.

13. To implement obligations to reduce the trade in small arms.

14. To collaborate with the ILO to fund a fair and just transition program for workers currently working in the arms trade.

15. To end the destabilization of states and regions through the sale of arms, including through the guise of ³foreign aid². and the refuse to participate International arms fairs.

16. To end the production of land mines and to sign and ratify the Convention for the Banning of Landmines, and affirm a commitment of funds and continuous effort to remove land mines from all areas of the world where land mines are known to exist.

17. To end importing uranium from other states, and to acknowledge the inextricable link between civil nuclear energy and the development of nuclear arms.

18. To phase out the use of civil nuclear energy, and refuse to accept nuclear energy as the solution to climate change (NO); and to support the deletion of Article IV of the NPT which bestows the inalienable right of states to access so-called ³peaceful² use of nuclear energy.

19. To prohibit the use of weapons such as depleted uranium and cluster bombs that would be prohibited under the Geneva Protocol II.

20. To oppose NATO'S "neither confirm nor deny first strike policy"¹, and support the disbanding of NATO and NORAD. (

21. To abide by the Geneva Conventions on the treatment of civilians, and respect international human rights and humanitarian law.

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

22. To undertake to sign and ratify all Geneva Protocols, including Protocol V, which requires the removal of remnants of war

23. To abandon the pre-emptive/preventive attack policy that has resulted in aggressive attacks on sovereign states and that has been in violation of the UN Charter Article 2 and international law as being the 'supreme' international crime of a war of aggression

24 To end the practice of mollifying public opposition by couching aggressive acts in euphemistic "operations" such as "Operation Just Cause", ³Operation Iraqi Freedom², "Operation Enduring Freedom", etc

25. To not engage in and to oppose any attempt to undermine the international resolve to prevent the scourge of war; this would include not engaging in intimidation or in offering economic incentives in exchange for support for military interventions.

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

26, To invoke Chapter VI - the peaceful resolutions of disputes - and be prepared to be judged by the International Court of Justice

27. To no longer perceive justice in terms of revenge through military intervention and to instead seek justice through the International Court of Justice.

12. To undertake to respect the mandatory jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice, and to abide by its decisions

28 To no longer misconstrue Art. 51 (self-defence) of the Charter of the United Nations to justify premeditated non-provoked military aggression, or to use various such pretexts for invading other sovereign states

29. To be willing to be judged by an international tribunal for any actions that might be deemed to violate international law, to be crimes against the peace, to be war crimes, or to involve genocide

30 To not misuse UN "peacekeeping" forces to clean up aggressive acts of destruction and occupation of other states.

31.. To discontinue propping up and financing military dictators.

32. To abandon the practice of targeting or assisting in the assassination of leaders of other sovereign states, and of engaging in "regime change" or covert destabilization of democratically elected leaders of or any leader of a sovereign state; to end the interference in the democratic process through US government-funded Non-Governmental Organizations.

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

33. To abide by the Convention against Torture through Cruel, Inhumane or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, and end the practice of rendition of citizens and to abide by the Geneva Conventions

34. To eliminate cruel and inhumane punishment such as capital punishment, which violates accepted international norms. (NOT YET)

35. To abandon institutions and agreements which promulgate globalization, deregulation and privatization; these institutions and agreements undermine the rule of international public trust law, and condone and actively facilitate corporations benefitting and profiting from war.

36. To oppose the promulgation, globalization, deregulation and privatization through trade agreements, such as the WTO/FTAA/NAFTA, SPP etc. that undermine the rule of international public trust law and international norms, and to support global fair trade. (NOT YET)

37. To disband the WTO, to abrogate NAFTA and to end negotiation of the Security and Prosperity Partnership Agreement. (NOT YET)

38. To oppose all proposals such as those in the Security and Prosperity Partnership, which will result, through the practice of harmonization, in standards and regulations not achieving the highest tenable principles but arriving at the lowest common denominator. (NOT YET)

39. To abandon the IMF Structural Adjustment Program which has led to the violation of human rights, has exploited citizens in the developing world and has adversely impacted on vulnerable and indigenous peoples around the world. (NOT YET)

40. To oppose the privatization of public services such as water, sewage and health care, and to acknowledge that the access to water is a human right. (NOT YET)

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

41. To increase funding to universities to counter the corporate funding of education, including the corporate direction of research, and declare that research must be arms-length and not tied to government or corporations. (NOT YET)

42. To finally implement the long-standing international commitment to transfer .7% of the GDP for overseas aid, and to cancel Third World debt. (NOT YET)

43. To no longer subsidize and invest in companies that have developed weapons of mass destruction, that have violated human rights, that have denied social justice, that have exploited workers, and that have destroyed the environment. (NOT YET)

44. To implement the commitment made to ensure that corporations, including transnational corporations, comply with international law, and that they pay compensation for any previous health and environmental consequences of their actions. (NOT YET)

45. To revoke charters and licences of corporations that have violated human rights, including labour rights, that have contributed to war and violence, and that have led to the destruction of the environment. (NOT YET)

46. To abandon the capitalist, exploitative, competitive economic model, and embrace cooperative forms of economic entrepreneurship. (NOT YET)

47. To support Mandatory International Ethical Normative (MIENS) Standards and enforceable regulations to drive industry to conform to international law, and to oppose corporate "voluntary compliance". (NOT YET)

48. To enforce the provisions in the Convention to prevent disasters, and to not embrace the acceptance of weaker proposals which would result in "reducing disasters". (NOT YET)

49. To ban substances and activities that contribute to environmentally-induced diseases. (NOT YET)

50. To address poverty-related health problems and ensure universal access to a publicly-funded not-for-profit health care system. (NOT YET)

51. To end the production of toxic, hazardous, atomic waste;
To adopt the precautionary principle as a general and compulsory principle of law: where there is a threat of irreversible harm the lack of full scientific certainty shall not be used as a reason for postponing measure to prevent the threat; and to shift the burden of proof from the polluter to prove the practice is safe, rather than on the citizen to have to prove it is harmful. (NOT YET)

52. To prevent the transfer to other states of substances and activities that are harmful to human health or the environment as agreed at the UN Conferences on the Environment and Development, 1992. (NOT YET)

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

53. To ban the production, approval and promotion of genetically-engineered foods and crops which have led to a deterioration of the food supply, and to loss of heritage seeds. (NOT YET)

54. To oppose all proposals such as to supply genetically-engineered food and crops; to address the issue of poverty, or to contribute to the mitigation of climate change. (NOT YET)

55. To ban genetically-engineered food and crops, to promote organic agriculture, and to institute a fair and just transition program for workers and communities affected by the conversion to organic agriculture. (PROMOTES ORGANIC WITHOUT BANNING GENETICALLY-ENGINEERED FOODS AND CROPS)

56. To protect biodiversity by ratifying the Convention on Biological Diversity and oppose "megadiversity" - resulting from genetic engineering. (NO)

57. To be forthright in acknowledging that the Biosafety Protocol is a disguised trade agreement, and serves to promote the acceptance of genetically modified living organisms. (NOT YET)

58. To accept the warnings of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, and to no longer disregard obligations under the Framework Convention on Climate Change and its Protocol to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, to preserve carbon sinks, and commitments made under Habitat II Agenda to move away from car-dependency. (IS BEGINNING TO CHANGE POSITION)

59. To urge the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change to investigate and estimate the full impact of greenhouse gas emissions by the military, and demand that each state release information related to the greenhouse gas emissions from the production of all weapon systems, military exercises, from war games, weapons testing, military aviation, environmental warfare, troop transfer, military operations, waste generation, reconstruction after acts of violent interventions etc. (NO)

60. To counter the deniers of the issue of climate change by citing the precautionary principle contained in the legally binding Framework Convention on Climate Change, which reads that where there is a threat of climate change, the lack of full scientific certainty should not be used as a reason to postpone measures to prevent the threat [a paraphrase]. (MAY HAVE)

61. To oppose any suggestion that civil nuclear energy is the solution to climate change. (Civil nuclear energy violates the principle that a solution should never be equally bad or worse than the problem it is intended to solve). (NOT YET)

62. To end the misappropriation of agricultural land for the growing of biofuel. (NO, AND HAS SUPPORTED IT AT THE CSD 17)

63. To oppose the practice by the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) of promoting civil nuclear energy as a solution to climate change [in violation of the principle that a regulator should not a promoter be]. (NOT YET)

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

64. To support a Forest Protocol to be linked to the Convention on Biological Diversity and to the Framework Convention on Climate Change. (NOT YET)

65. To repeal the Patriot Act because it violates civil and political rights, and results in racial profiling. (NOT YET)

66. To end the obsession with the war on terror. (LESS EMPHASIS, POSSIBLE DISCUSSION WITH THOSE DEEMED TO BE TERRORISTS)

67. To open up a full investigation of the events surrounding September 11, 2001. (NOT YET)

68. To release the Cuba 5. (NOT YET)

69. To release Leonard Peltier (NOT YET)

70. To clearly distinguish legitimate dissent from criminal acts of subversion. (NOT YET)

71. To address the ignominy in the case of USA vs Al-Arian. (NOT YET)

72. To abandon the ³no-fly² list, and the FBI list of activists. (NOT YET)

73. To tear down the wall between Mexico and the United States. (NOT YET)

74. To oppose "SLAPP suits" against public participation. (NOT YET)

75. To no longer target, intimidate and discriminate against activists on the grounds of political and other opinion (a listed ground in the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights). (NOT YET)

76. To end all discrimination on the following grounds:

- race, tribe, or culture;
 - colour, ethnicity, national ethnic or social origin, or language; nationality, place of birth, or nature of residence (refugee or immigrant, migrant worker);
 - gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, or form of family, [including same-sex marriage]
 - disability or age;
 - religion or conviction, political or other opinion, or - class, economic position, or other status.
- (MORE TOLERANCE)

77. To end the discrimination against immigrants, and refugees. (NOT YET)

78. To sign and ratify the Convention for the Protection of Migrant Workers and their Families; and the Convention on Refugees; and to revoke the Secure Fence Act and end the unconscionable wall between the United States and Mexico. (NOT YET)

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

79. To offer amnesty to all those who were war resisters. (NOT YET)
80. To fully abide by the ILO Convention related to indigenous rights. (NOT YET)
81. To no longer engage in practices that destroy the lands of indigenous people or that are deemed to be inappropriate as agreed to in Agenda 21 (UNCED). (NOT YET)
82. To adopt the Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. (NOT YET)
83. To respect women's reproductive rights, and abide by commitments made under the International Conference on Population and Development, and the Beijing Platform, and to sign and ratify the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women, and its Protocols. (NOT YET)
84. To ratify the Convention on the Rights of the Child. (NOT YET)
85. To sign and ratify all the ILO Conventions, including the provisions related to the right to strike, and the right to equal pay for work of equal value. (NOT YET)
86. To support the institution of an International Court of Compliance linked to the International Court of Justice; The Court of Compliance will hear evidence from citizens of state non-compliance. (NOT YET)
87. To support the establishment of an International Court of Compliance where citizens can take evidence of state and corporate non-compliance, and where, in the absence of compliance, charters and licences of corporation can be revoked. (NOT YET)
88. To discharge obligations incurred through conventions, treaties, and covenants; and act on commitments made through conference action plans related to common security - peace, environment, human rights and social justice. (NOT YET)
89. To sign, ratify, and enact the necessary legislation to ensure compliance with, or respect for Common Security International Conventions, Covenants and Treaties. (NOT YET)
90. To affirm a commitment to multilateralism and oppose unilateral actions that undermine global common security. (YES, HE HAS BEGUN)
91. To affirm that true security is not "collective security" or "human security" which has been extended to "humanitarian intervention", and used along with the "responsibility to protect" with a view to justifying military intervention in other states. True security is "common security", not as defined in the SPP, but in documents prepared by Olaf Palme, and which entrench peremptory norms related to the following actions. (NOT YET)
92. To promote and fully guarantee respect for human rights including labour rights, civil and political rights, social and cultural rights- right to food, right to housing, right to a universally

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53

accessible, not-for-profit health care system, right to education and social justice; to this end, to ratify the International Covenant on Social Economic and Cultural Rights.;

* to enable socially equitable and environmentally sound employment, and ensure the right to development [as per Convention];

* to achieve a state of peace, social justice and disarmament; through reallocation of military expenses, and eradication of poverty;

* to create a global structure that respects the rule of law ; and

* to ensure the preservation and protection of the environment, respect the inherent worth of nature beyond human purpose, reduce the ecological footprint and move away from the current model of over-consumptive development and toward forms of economic cooperation.

93. To ratify the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, under which Article 53 has the provision that a treaty is null and void if the treaty violates international peremptory norms. (NOT YET)

94. To oppose religious extremism and proselytizing including the spread of Evangelical Christianity around the world, which has undermined local indigenous cultures, instilled fear through the dangerous belief in the "rapture", "Armageddon" and "left behind", has promulgated a dispensationalist "end times" scenario which has serious irreversible consequences. and has led to the denigrating of other established beliefs and practices. (NOT YET)

95. To no longer undermine the notion of democracy by couching a plutocracy/theocracy in democratic notions of "freedom". (NOT YET)

96. To end the interference in the democratic process through US government-funded Non-Governmental Organizations [NGOs]. (NOT YET)

97. To reverse the practice of the United States undermining years of international obligations incurred through treaties, conventions and covenants. (NOT YET)

98. To reverse the practice of the United States of undermining international commitments made through UN Conference Action plans. (NOT YET)

99. To reverse the practice of the United States of undermining international expectations created through UNGA declarations and resolutions. NOT YET

100.To refuse to end all speeches with God bless America. (NOT YET)

Obama: peace prize for talk now walk the talk

Posted by

Tuesday, 13 October 2009 00:16 - Last Updated Monday, 27 July 2015 10:53
