

USS NIMITZ WARSHIP SHOULD BE PROHIBITED IN CANADIAN WATERS AND HARBOURS.

Posted by Joan Russow

Friday, 13 June 2014 09:26 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 June 2014 19:07

By Joan Russow

Global Compliance Research Project

USS NIMITZ WARSHIP SHOULD BE PROHIBITED IN CANADIAN WATERS AND HARBOURS.

Posted by Joan Russow

Friday, 13 June 2014 09:26 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 June 2014 19:07

USS NIMITZ WARSHIP SHOULD BE PROHIBITED IN CANADIAN WATERS AND HARBOURS.

Posted by Joan Russow

Friday, 13 June 2014 09:26 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 June 2014 19:07

Photograph US Navy [REDACTED]

The Nimitz is scheduled to arrive in Victoria on June 13, 2014. The USS Nimitz participated in O

The government of Canada is potentially criminally negligent for allowing the USS Nimitz in Cana

At a time when at the UN there is a call for the abolition of nuclear weapons there is no justificati

Misplaced Onus of proof – actions that are inherently dangerous

In a case where there is a dangerous intrusion into the environment and society, the onus of

Skewed notion of "informed consent"

Skewed notion of "informed consent" when there are inherently dangerous actions with pote

Benefit for humanity ignored

There was a UNESCO Declaration once which was entitled "Declaration on the Use of Scient

Noting also with concern that scientific and technological achievements can entail dangers f

Cycle of errors

It has been said that "scientists and universities and governments should not be sued unles

Criminal negligence

There comes a point where engaging in an action is blatantly criminally negligent regardless

Everyone is criminally negligent who (a) in doing anything, or (b) in omitting to do anything that

Personal criminal responsibility

In 1993, at the International Environmental Law and Public Policy Conference in Eugene, Ore

Injunction to prevent harm misapplied

In 1976, there was an important case which prevented the pesticide 24D from being dumped

"The remedy [of injunction] of course, is an equitable one. The exercise of the equitable juris

AN INJUNCTION SHOULD HAVE BEEN GRANTED TO PREVENT THE DANGEROUS WAR VESSEL

USS NIMITZ WARSHIP SHOULD BE PROHIBITED IN CANADIAN WATERS AND HARBOURS.

Posted by Joan Russow

Friday, 13 June 2014 09:26 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 June 2014 19:07

1991 COURT CASE WAS LAUNCHED TO TRY TO PREVENT THE NUCLEAR POWERED AND NUCLEAR

The VIP society launched a court case in 1991 calling for an environmental assessment review of the

The Liberal government was in power when the case was finally heard and the judge decided in favour of the

In 1993, the NDP was in power provincially, there was a 50 to 1 vote in support of the court case.

The judgment of the Federal Court was made over a year later. The Court held that the byproduct of nuclear

Through Access to Information, the fabrication of the information by the society has been exposed. The

The current Canadian Conservative government has increased the number of Exercises with the