In celebration of Black History Month, please join Colour Connected Against Racism as we reflect on the remarkable life of Malcolm X. Born in Omaha, Nebraska in 1925, Malcolm X came to be a leader in the struggle for civil rights in the United States. He went on to travel widely, converted to Islam, and adopted the name El-Hajj Malik El-Shabazz. He became a symbol of resistance against all kinds of oppression, but especially against racial and colonial violence. Even 44 years after his death he continues to be a source of radical inspiration to oppressed people around the world.
